DEDICATION

The Senior Class of 1950-51 gladly dedicates "The Valley Echo" to Miss Herley M. Poole, whose guidance and faithfulness we appreciate. We will always remember her as a co-operative teacher, and wish for her much success in the future.

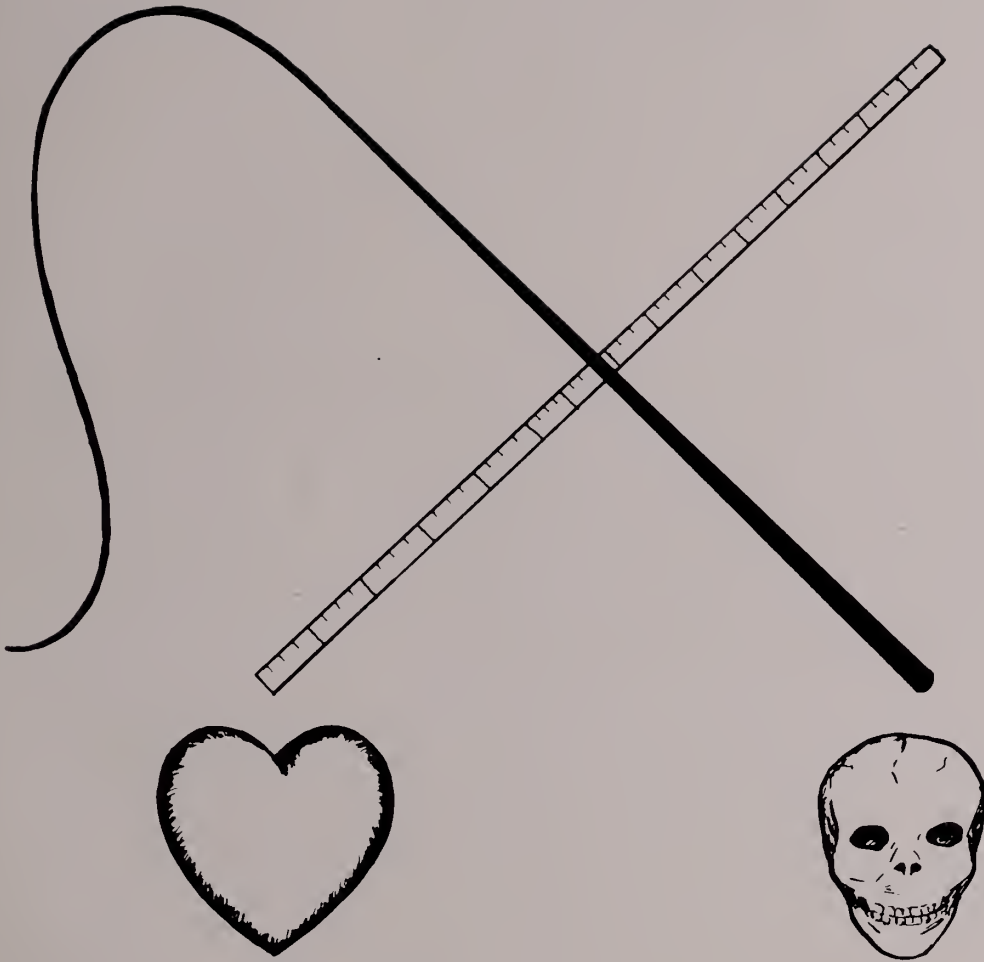

OUR SCHOOL

In the hills of old Virginia,
 'Neath the Southern skies,
 Stands a school I'll always cherish-
 Our own Draper High!

We are singing, praises ringing,
 Draper High to thee,
 May we ever more be faithful,
 To thy memory!

Class Prophecy

In the year 2000 A.D., I decided to make a survey to determine how many of my Swaper High School classmates had survived the twentieth century.

Being a seasoned archaeologist, I was quite successful at the job of digging up information concerning the life, and alas, the death, of each of my old friends.

In the interest of mankind, I have compiled this material and here present it for your perusal.

CLASS HISTORY

September 1947 saw seventy-six nervous freshmen squirming in seats in the class rooms of Draper High School. How different high school would be! We expected, of course, to have several different teachers for classes, but when we had four homeroom teachers, one after the other, we were rather overwhelmed. First came Mr. D. B. Jurison, followed by Mrs. R. C. Miller, then Mrs. V. M. Moody and finally Miss Nancy Pafford.

One outstanding feature of this year was the annual picnic at Carter's Memorial Park made memorable by Lois Long's falling in the creek. The Choral Club, which was composed of mostly freshmen, attended the music festival at Pulaski and won second place. Lois Long, Billy Tolbert, and Donald and Ronald Meredith were present every day this year.

On entering our sophomore year we were minus quite a few students. This year seventeen girls in the library under the leadership of Mrs. Kitty Watts organized by electing: Eva White, President; Stella Jarrells, Vice-President; Bennie Kelley, Secretary; Bartie Sutphin, Reporter.

The sophomores in Room 3 under the leadership of Miss Polly Watts organized by electing Francis Kelley, President; Donald Harris, Vice-President; Charles Painter, Secretary; Vivian Quesenberry, Reporter.

Some of the outstanding events of this year were: The Halloween party which was held in the gym. The most exciting incident of this party was the "Scavenger Hunt." Other events of interest include the annual picnic at Carter's Memorial Park and the Doctor I. Q. Assembly program. The S. C. A. was re-organized, and Charles Painter, Bartie Sutphin, Lois Long, Anita Huff, Edith Gallimore, Francis Kelley, Ronald Meredith, and Donald Harris were homeroom representatives. Anita Huff, Edith Gallimore, and Donald Harris attended the district meeting at Hillsville.

The junior class was composed of thirty-seven pupils. This year under the leadership of Mrs. Canary Newman we organized by electing: Donald Harris, President; Jimmy Rigney, Vice-President; Bartie Sutphin, Secretary; Norinda Harler, Treasurer; Stella Jarrells, Reporter; Bonnie Mabe and Charles Painter, Songleaders.

Nine juniors were taken into the Beta Club. Anita Huff and Francis Kelley attended the National Beta Club Convention at the John Marshall Hotel in Richmond. Also some of the juniors were in the Beta Club play entitled "Grandad Steps Out."

One of the most outstanding events of this year was the junior play entitled "Raggedy Nan," which proved to be a great success. On May 6 in the lunchroom we entertained the seniors with a banquet. Anita Huff attended the Junior Red Cross Camp. This year we had a chance to get in typing.

After three long years of toiling, we entered into our most important year. This, our senior year, our class leaders were: Jimmy Rigney, President; Vivian Rigney, Vice-President; Stella Jarrells, Secretary; Joe Covey, Treasurer; Bonnie Mabe and Charles Painter, Songleaders. Miss Herley Poole and Miss Irene Umberger were our sponsors. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to them for the wonderful work they did.

On arriving at school one morning, we joyfully received the news that class rings had arrived. What excitement! On December 12, the Senior Class presented its annual play, a mystery comedy, entitled "The Scarecrow Creeps." The Senior English Class also made an enjoyable trip to Radford to see one of Shakespeare's plays, "Hamlet."

Now we are looking forward to the remainder of this year: Class Night, Baccalaureate, Junior-Senior entertainment, Commencement, and finally our last reward, the diploma. It will be sad leaving dear old Draper, but fond and happy memories will linger with us.

- 1, Charles Painter, will my G. I. haircut to Bobby Stamper.
- 1, Leroy McCambridge, will my lost finger to Elizabeth Viers.

We, the Senior Class, will to our teachers the following.

- To Miss Lovern, a group of individuals who can appreciate the works of literary geniuses.
- To Mr. Lynch, a successful government class and a pennant for Emory & Henry.
- To Mr. Lyons, a successful girls' basketball team.
- To Mrs. Canary Newman, the patience to lay the foundation for future senior classes.
- To Mrs. Lalah Newman, a special dressing room for the girls' basketball team.
- To Mr. Newman, a quiet sixth period study hall.
- To Mr. Westphal, another Junior English Class to be proud of when they become Seniors.

To Miss Umberger and Miss Poole, another group to guide as successfully as they guided us.

To Mr. Allison, a squad that can win modestly and lose triumphantly.

To Mr. Tilson, another FFA group that will win as many honors as those in the past.

We, the Senior Class, will the Junior Class the energy and enthusiasm to finish well the job they have begun.

We, the Senior Class, will the Sophomore Class the ability to make high grades.

We, the Senior Class, will the Freshman Class our ability to pull together through the four years of high school training.

Hereunto, we declare this to be the last will and testament of the Class of 1950-51.
